A POINT OF VIEW

For Immediate Release January 20, 2017

MEDIA ALERT

105 Year Old Poet Celebrates 'National Handwriting Day'

WHAT: With her 105 years of wisdom, Resident Betty writes poetry almost every day. In this age of instant communication, it is time to appreciate the beauty of writing by hand. In celebration of National Handwriting Day, Betty is a rare talent.

WHEN: Monday, January 23rd 2017 (National Handwriting Day)

WHERE: Bayview | 11 West Aloha Street | Seattle, WA 98119

WHO: Betty contributes to the monthly newsletter at Bayview and is a well-recognized poet within the Bayview Community.

WHY: Age is no barrier to Betty, as she continues to change the perception and expectations of aging. Betty also reminds us of the delicate (and almost) lost art of handwriting.

Betty will be available for an interview. YOUR COVERAGE IS INVITED
