MEDIA ALERT

Red Carpet Premiere: Bayview Residents Show Us it's Never Too Late to Shine

WHAT: In red carpet fashion, Bayview will premiere their much anticipated filmmaking project. After the success of the 2013 Bayview Musical Comedy and 2014 sci-fi flick 'The Thirteenth Floor,' Bayview residents do it again with 13 webisodes, in which they wrote, starred, and even directed several episodes. Event will include meet and greet with the actors, introduction from Executive Producer, full viewing of webisodes, followed by champagne reception.

WHEN: Tuesday, November 17th at 2:00 pm

WHERE: Albertson Center, Bayview Retirement Community, 11 West Aloha Street, Seattle, WA 98119.

WHO: Resident actors will be joined with Filmmaker Karen Tanzy, Executive Producer and Bayview Director of Resident Services Nancy Weinbeck, family, friends, residents and staff.

WHY: Unleashing the power of creativity in life is an essential part of healthy aging. Through Bayview's web series, residents are able to weave together themes of positive aging and courage aimed to benefit all generations. These creative projects are also more than just filmmaking for Bayview residents. It's about turning a vision into a reality and finding new vehicles of expression and communication. The residents aspire to change the perception and expectations of older adults!

Resident Actors, Executive Producer Nancy Weinbeck, Filmmaker Karen Tanzy will be available for interviews.
