

For Immediate Release November 15, 2016

MEDIA ALERT

Red Carpet Premiere: Bayview Short Films Aimed at Galvanizing the Nation with Inspiration

WHAT: In red carpet fashion, Bayview will premiere an animated movie created by residents called “Express Yourself” and a short film called “Look Closer.” After the success of the 2013 Bayview Musical Comedy, 2014 sci-fi flick ‘The Thirteenth Floor,’ and the first ever Resident webisodes, Bayview residents do it again! This event will include a meet and greet with the actors, introduction from the Executive Producer, full viewing of the two short films, followed by champagne reception.

WHEN: Tuesday, November 22 at 2:00 pm

WHERE: Albertson Center, Bayview, 11 West Aloha Street, Seattle, WA 98119

WHO: Resident actors will be joined with Filmmakers Scott Jackman and Karen Tanzy, Executive Producer/Bayview Director of Residential Operations Nancy Weinbeck, family, friends, residents and staff. Karen, Scott and Nancy recently presented their film program at the National Center for Creative Aging in WA, DC in September.

WHY: Bayview resident movie-making provokes themes of positive aging and courage aimed to benefit all generations. These creative projects are also more than just filmmaking for Bayview residents. It’s about turning a vision into a reality and finding new vehicles of expression and communication. The residents aspire to change the perception and expectations of older adults!

Resident Actors, Nancy Weinbeck, Scott Jackman and Karen Tanzy will be available for interviews.
