MEDIA ALERT

Masterful Pianist Randolph Hokanson Celebrates 100th Birthday with Concert

WHAT: World renowned pianist and Bayview resident Randolph Hokanson turns 100 this month of June and will be gracing the stage with a piano concert.

WHEN: Wednesday, June 24th at 2:30 pm

WHERE: Albertson Center
Bayview Retirement Community
11 West Aloha Street | Seattle, WA 98119.

WHO: Among his many talents and a century's worth of experience, he's spent his time as a French Interpreter during World War II, was a professor at the University of Washington for 35 years, and continues to inspire new generations of musicians. Randy will be joined with Bayview residents, family, friends, and community members.

WHY: Age is no barrier to Randy, as he continues to change the perception and expectations of aging. This is a chance of a lifetime to be captivated by his performance.

Randy will be available for an interview after the performance.
