MEDIA ALERT

Seniors of Bayview Community Deliver $4,400 Bazaar Proceeds to Mary's Place

WHAT: A team of hard-working Bayview residents put together a community-building Holiday Bazaar back in December in which all proceeds would support the work of Mary's Place. On Monday, January 25th, a group of residents will visit Mary's Place (many for the first time), to bridge together communities, generations, and deliver all proceeds.

WHEN: Monday, January 25th at 11:30 am

WHERE: Mary's Place | 1830 9th Ave | Seattle, WA 98101

WHO: Bayview residents and staff, Executive Director Marty Hartman of Mary's Place, and Mary's Place community members will come together in joyful spirits. Bayview is a non-profit retirement community with a mission to transform the experience of aging and Mary's Place is a Seattle charity empowering homeless women and children to reclaim their lives.

WHY: The most powerful way to grow our community is by extending our arms to others. The two communities are excited to meet face to face and solidify their partnership in 2016.
