MEDIA ALERT

Queen Anne Days to be the Biggest Neighborhood Celebration!

WHAT: Queen Anne Days is a free two-day community event celebrating our neighborhood and the rich diversity that it brings. What started as a neighborhood BBQ roughly 25 year ago has now become a highly anticipated festival and platform to bring everybody together.

WHEN: Saturday, July 11th from 1:30 – 9 pm and Sunday, July 12th from 10:30 – 4 pm

WHERE: West Queen Anne Playfield (right next to Queen Anne Community Center)
150 West Blaine Street | Seattle, WA 98119

WHO: People from all across the generations will be involved. Saturday Summerfest festivities include: Queen Anne Helpline Fun Run/Walk, sidewalk sale, Doggie Parade, Wine & Cider Garden, Tai Chi for seniors, live music, + more. Sunday Familyfest festivities include: Kiddie parade, great bands, bouncy houses, food trucks, games, arts, bunnies, + more.

WHY: Connectedness and sense of community. QA Days is a completely volunteer-run weekend and brings a sense of togetherness through generosity in spirit.
